2 East Palestine Men Killed In Crash

RUSK ARRIVES IN GENEVA. U. S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk, left, speaks on arrival at Geneva's Cointrin Airport late March 10. Rusk heads U. S. delegation to 17-nation disarmament conference opening March 14 in Geneva. Next to Rusk is William C. Foster, head of U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency.

Testing, Disarmament Also Discussed

Berlin Top Subject At Geneva Meeting

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko met today to sound each other out on conflicting East-West positions on Berlin, nuclear testing and disarmament.

British Foreign Minister Lord Home bowed out temporarily and let Rusk press the Western views on the issues. Rusk and Gromyko got together over the luncheon table in the Soviet delegation's villa.

A British spokesman said Home's temporary withdrawal from the foreign ministers' sessions was a logical development since the Americans and the British are speaking in Geneva with one voice.

Rusk, Gromyko and Lord Home — here for the opening of the 17-nation disarmament conference Wednesday — conferred Sunday night at dinner but reports were that little progress was made.

The Western Allies called on Russia to stop harassing Allied air traffic to Berlin lest increasing tensions there endanger the disarmament negotiations.

Gromyko denied knowledge of Soviet interference in the Berlin air corridors.

Rusk also told Gromyko the United States and Britain would like to get to work promptly on a nuclear test ban treaty.

Gromyko dimmed hopes for a quick agreement by raising the old spy-scare issue to counter

President Kennedy's demand that ironclad inspection provisions be written into any treaty.

Rusk again warned Gromyko that unless an agreement can be reached by the middle of April, the United States will go ahead with a series of nuclear atmospheric tests in the central Pacific. Home supported the U.S. stand.

125 Attend Legionnaires' County Dinner

LISBON — One hundred and twenty-five attended the American Legion's 43rd birthday dinner Saturday evening at the John J. Welch Post Home, sponsored by the Columbiana County Council of the American Legion.

Guests included Ohio Department Commander Chester Stellar and his wife, Doreen, of Creston; Tenth District officers — Cmdr. Sam Seikel of Dover; First Vice Robert Knoble and Second Vice Dwight Bush and their wives.

Dr. James Garstick of Columbiana, Legion essay chairman, presented awards to the eight county winners of essays on "My Responsibility As A American Citizen."

Winners were Carol Winegard and Richard Pine, sponsored by Post 290, 9th grade; Mike Jewel of Post 684 and Linda Swanson, Post 290, 10th grade; Brigit O'Farrell, Post 374, and Brooks Weigart, Post 684, 11th grade; and Emil Ziegler, Post 684, and Becky Way, Post 290, 12th grade.

John Herman Jr. of Salem conducted an impressive memorial service for departed veterans.

Department Commander Stellar, in his address, sketched the formation of the American Legion from the caucus in Paris to the great veterans organization it is today. He reported that national and department officers at a meeting in Washington with congressmen, the Legion talked over legislation that the Legion wants to see action taken and the Legion again went on record supporting the investigations of the Un-American Activities Committee.

Cmdr. Stellar complimented the county legion essay winners, saying they represented the youth in America today and the future of America tomorrow, with this future in their hands we have nothing to worry about.

Bert Keck of Post 736 in Glenmoor acted as master of ceremonies.

ROTARY CLUB PROGRAM

Robert Barr, chairman of the crippled children's committee of the Salem Rotary Club, will discuss the work of the club when the Rotarians meet Tuesday noon at the Memorial Building. Jack Klein is program chairman for the day.

The Rotary district conference is scheduled at Youngstown April 12-13.

Negotiations To Start On Panama Canal

U. S. Faces Touchy Job; Present Treaty Is Termed Unfair

PANAMA (AP)—Within a few weeks the United States will face the sticky task of renegotiating the treaty governing the Panama Canal.

Panamanian negotiators, led by President Roberto F. Chiari, are expected to press for more revenue and Panamanian sovereignty over the canal which cuts through Panama.

The original treaty signed in 1903 gave the United States perpetual rights to the canal, a 50-mile stretch from Colon to Panama City, and a five-mile zone on either side.

Panamanian officials believe that the perpetual rights clause is unique in treaties and unfair. "The canal is an economic and natural resource for us," said Fabian Velarde, press secretary to Chiari. "It is the only thing with which we have to bargain."

Panamanians want their flag to fly over the zone, or at least to be flown jointly with the U.S. flag. They believe that ships transiting the canal should fly the Panamanian flag.

The United States pays Panama a flat yearly sum.

The original annuity of $250,000 in effect for many years has risen progressively. Last year it was $1.9 million, which Panamanian officials say is too small.

In the treaty negotiations, Panama will ask for a percentage of the gross revenues. The exact figure has not been announced. Velarde says the United States can increase its tonnage fee on ships passing through the canal to offset the cost.

The present canal cannot accommodate the largest ships. The alternate to a sea-level canal is to increase the capacity of the present canal, an expensive and complicated process.

The United States has made exhaustive studies of a sea-level canal possibly to be built across Nicaragua.

For Panama, which has geared its economy to a U.S.-operated canal, a sea-level canal could prove financially disastrous.

Homey Hello Planned For Gary Powers

BIG STONE GAP, Va. (AP)—U2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, "glad to be home" and in the market for a new suit, was set for a homey hello from his native hill country today.

Powers, visiting his parents' home at nearby Pound for the first time since his release from a Soviet prison, planned to shop in Norton for a new suit.

The flier then was due to join a small motorcade to the National Guard armory here where local officials will welcome him back to mountainous southwest Virginia.

Most of the 49,000 Wise County residents don't know Powers personally, for he lived in the Pound area only briefly. He spent more time in nearby Jenkins, Ky., and in Grundy, Va., where he went to high school.

But the citizenry does know Powers' father, Oliver Powers, a Norton cobbler.

Powers slipped quietly in under cover of darkness early Sunday after a drive from Washington. He spent the rest of the night chatting with his family, got two hours sleep, and was up again.

After a home-cooked turkey dinner Sunday night, Powers said there were no words to describe his feeling. He said it was the first time he and his five sisters have been together since 1933.

Powers spent part of Sunday afternoon horseback riding in the hill country and quipped, "I haven't had much opportunity to do that sort of thing recently." Reaction in the community was subdued. Local officials were anxious to show Powers he was welcome at home, although admitted, said one, "It is not a hero's welcome—he (Powers) did not want that."

FOUR DIE AS PLANE HITS HOUSE. An Air Force C119 Flying Boxcar slammed into the home of Lubet Levron late March 10 killing the construction worker, his wife and two sons. A seven-year-old daughter is in a hospital with a probable skull fracture. All six crewmembers of the plane parachuted to safety. The plane plowed across an open field opposite Levron's house, jumped a 15-foot bayou, sheared a utility pole off at its base, jumped the highway and ripped into Levron's home, 22 miles southeast of New Orleans, La.

U. S. Stock In Thailand Soars

Recent Aid Pledge Sparks New Upsurge

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—U.S. stock in Thailand, which sagged visibly earlier in the year, has soared to a new high.

A pledge by the United States last week to come to Thailand's assistance in case of Communist aggression has sparked a new wave of pro-American sentiment among leaders of this Southeast Asian country.

The pledge inspired Premier Marshal Sarit Thanarat, in a weekend nationwide television speech, to call the United States a true friend and give assurance that friendship and cooperation between the countries will exist eternally.

His statements contrasted sharply with his comments made as recently as a month ago, criticizing U.S. policy toward Laos.

Sarit and other Thai officials protested U.S. support for a neutralist coalition government in Laos, which they claimed would lead to Communist domination of that next-door neighbor and endanger Thailand's security.

They roundly scored so-called pressure tactics by the United States, including the withholding of aid money, to force the right-wing Laotian government—which Thailand backs—into negotiations with the neutralist and pro-Communist factions.

There is no indication that this point of difference has been resolved, but the pledge of immediate assistance made in Washington to Thai Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman has eased Thailand's fears on one part: it need not rely now solely on the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization for its defense.

Thailand and the United States do not have a formal bilateral defense treaty.

The new U.S. commitment, contained in a communique after Thanat's Washington talks, assures Thailand of American assistance even without prior SEATO approval.

Sarit underlined this in his speech Saturday night. Now, he emphasized, "If and when our country is invaded it will not stand alone."

First Lady Plans Nine-Day Visit

100,000 Indians Give Jackie Warm Welcome

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—More than 100,000 Indians turned out today to give a warm-welcome to America's First Lady, Jacqueline Kennedy, starting a two-week visit to India and Pakistan.

Mrs. Kennedy's nine-day visit to India has been billed as a semi-official one, and today's welcome lacked the pomp and ceremony for such previous visitors as former President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Queen Elizabeth II.

The sizable crowd along Mrs. Kennedy's seven-mile route from the airport was not the only surprise. She provided one of her own by departing from her scheduled program to see the pageantry of President Rajendra Prasad's

6th Grader Wins Top Science Award

Vernon Sproat, a sixth grade student at Reilly School, won the trophy for having the best project at the first annual science fair held at the Junior High School Friday and Saturday.

Vernon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Sproat Jr., of 1763 Maple St., received the award for his exhibit, "Magnets."

Plaques were awarded seven other students whose projects were judged best of their divisions.

Winners were:

Karen Leaf for her exhibit, "Weather," in the earth science division.

Ward Hiltbrand, "Our Future in Solar Energy," electronics.

Mark Annis, "Model Rocketry," astronomy.

Mattalie Guzik, "Mollusca," animals.

Charlotte Berg, "Algae," plants.

Chet Burson, "Stripmining Reclamation," conservation.

Diana Schaeffer, "Narcotics," human body.

A complete list of winners, grouped according to their classes, follows:

Sixth grade — Vernon Sproat, "Magnets," first; Claudia Volio, "Dinosaurs," second; Jim Sutherin, "Rocketry," third, and Tim Cope, "Volcanoes," John Goddard, "Fossils of Ohio," and Doug Hamilton, "Radio," honorable mention.

Seventh grade — Craig Everett, "Our Solar Friends"; Paul Fennema, "Rocks," and Tom Vassar, "Weather."

Selection Of Jury Begun In Murder Case

LISBON—Only one person had been seated by noon today as a prospective juror in the first-degree murder trial of William Boyd Jr., 22, of Pennsylvania Ave., East Liverpool.

Of the prospective 54 jurors who were summoned only Edward Taylor, 610 John St., East Liverpool, was seated tentatively.

Mrs. Alma Russell, 957 Main St., Wellsville, was "excused for cause" and Mrs. Avon Hellman of Salem was being interrogated by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw and attorneys for Boyd.

It is not expected that a jury will be selected today. Questioning of prospective jurors will resume Tuesday morning and when the jury of 12 and two alternates is expected to be seated. They will be taken to the scene where Boyd allegedly confessed of hitting his estranged wife, Nancy Lee, 18, with a tire iron, and then shooting her.

The slaying took place on a hillside along Beaver Creek east of Calcutta Nov. 5, 1961. Boyd is a part-time laborer.

Boyd appeared in court this morning wearing a dark suit and black shoes and appeared to be calm while questions were being asked prospective jurors.

Delay Seen In Algerian Truce

Negotiators at Odds On New Government

EVIAN, France (AP)—French and Algerian rebel delegates went into their sixth day of peace talks today still at odds on the makeup and powers of an interim regime to take over until Algeria becomes a nation.

Informants close to the conference in the heavily guarded Hotel Du Parc were still optimistic that the negotiations would end in agreement but conceded it might not come as quickly as hoped.

The delegations are striving to reach agreement on a cease-fire to end the 7½-year-old Algerian rebellion. The accord would be accompanied by a lengthy document spelling out Algeria's future on a basis of self-determination.

Two main issues are said to confront the delegations — the makeup of the provisional executive and the strength of the local force or local gendarmerie which would have chief responsibility for keeping order during the interim period.

Both delegations maintained a strict secrecy rule in contacts with newsmen here and across Lake Geneva in neutral Switzerland where the rebels have their headquarters.

Reliable informants said a lengthy Sunday session failed to produce full agreement on the executive. One reported proposal was for a 12-man panel composed of nine Moslems of no political affiliation and three Europeans.

Another called for a panel of four Algerian nationalists, four other Moslems and four Europeans.

The Algerians were reported seeking a larger local force for the interim regime than the French were willing to concede so far.

In strife-torn Algiers, Europeans opened fire from windows and balconies on a French army patrol after it stopped a carload of Europeans trying to break through a military roadblock.

One French cadet officer and a soldier were wounded by the hail of bullets. The soldier fired back, wounding five Europeans. It was the first time Europeans had fired on a French patrol in Algiers.

Troops moved into the Bab-el-oued section of Algiers, a stronghold of the right-wing underground, Sunday night as 45,000 men massed in the Algiers perimeter were alerted to watch for a major action by the Secret Army Organization.

The secret army has ordered Europeans in Algeria to strike for 24 hours after the cease-fire announcement.

Dale Blake, L. E. Wudske Are Victims

Car, Truck Collide Near Unity; 2 Hurt In Other Mishap

Columbiana County's traffic death toll for 1962 climbed to eight early Sunday morning when two 24-year-old east Palestine men were killed in a collision of their car with a truck on Rt. 14, one-half mile west of Unity.

Dead are:

Lawrence E. (Larry) Wudske, Jr., of 130 W. Martin St., a drill press operator at the National Rubber Machinery Co. in Columbiana.

Dale Blake of 587 Bacon Ave., an unemployed laborer.

The truck driver, Charles G. Burkite, 36, of Stephens City, Va., is in fair condition at Salem City Hospital with a mild concussion and a whiplash injury of the neck.

Car Crashed Into Truck

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Wudske ran a stop sign at the junction of Rt. 30 and County Road 421 (Unity - New Waterford Rd.) at 3:10 a.m. and crashed broadside into the tractor-trailer.

The truck was traveling west on Rt. 30 and the East Palestine men were headed north on the Unity-New Waterford Rd.

There is no indication that the victims saw the stop sign, the Patrol said. The car plowed into the truck with terrific impact. Both victims were pinned in the wreckage and apparently were killed instantly. They were pronounced dead on arrival at Salem City Hospital.

Both suffered multiple injuries, including fractured skulls.

The 1956 Ford in which the East Palestine men were riding was demolished. The truck was damaged extensively.

Relief Driver Unhurt

A relief driver in the truck, whose name was not reported, escaped injury. He reportedly was asleep when the crash occurred. The 1958 Mack truck, owned by Snyder Trucking of Akron, was empty and was headed for Cleveland to pick up a load.

After it was struck by the car, the truck jackknifed and skinned up some trees in a thicket along the highway.

Dr. William A. Kolozsi, Columbiana County coroner, ruled the deaths accidental. This was the second multiple fatality accident in the county in eight days. Mrs. Alice Clewell, 46, of RD 4, Lisbon, and three of her children were killed the previous Sunday

Two Persons Hurt In Four-Car Mishap

Two persons received minor injury in a four-car traffic mishap on E. State St., near Vine Ave., at 10:03 p.m. Saturday.

Treated and released at Salem City Hospital were Ruby Lamb, 35, of the Benton Rd., Salem, lacerations of the forehead, and Charles Laughlin, 62, of Wampum, Pa., contusions of the hip.

Both injured persons were passengers in a car driven by Joseph Reed, 54, of 468 Actina St.

According to police, cars owned by Albert F. Brake of Ashtabula, Marie M. Pasco of 634 Ohio Ave., and Phyllis Michaels of Cleveland, parked on the south side of E. State St., were all sideswiped by Reed's eastbound auto, causing moderate damages to all four vehicles.

Reed was cited for reckless operation.

C. E. Kendrick Dies While Leading Choir

Charles E. Kendrick, 45, of 694 S. Union Ave. died suddenly of a heart attack while directing the choir during the 10:30 a.m. Mass at St. Paul's Catholic Church Sunday.

Born in New Brighton, Pa., July 27, 1917, he was a son of Mrs. Mary Janovic of Salem and the late Charles E. Kendrick.

He had been a resident of Salem since 1954, coming here

C. E. Kendrick from Akron. He owned and operated the Centennial Park Grocery and was a member of St. Paul's Church, the Rosary and Altar Society and the Knights of Columbus.

Besides his mother, he is survived by his wife, Alice Hertz Kendrick; two sons, Charles and Donald of the home; one sister, Mrs. Helen Julian of Salem; two step-brothers, Steve Janovec of Van Nuys, Calif., and Joseph Janovec of Salem.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at St. Paul's Church in charge of Rev. J. Richard Gaffney. Burial will be in Grandview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Stark Memorial Tuesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

The Doctor Says

By Dr. H. T. HYMAN

Eliminate Cause of Eczema

There are few sights as distressing as that of an infant with eczema. Local applications do little to relieve the condition and nothing to strike at the basic cause. Therefore we should concentrate on preventing a condition that is much more than a "skin disease" and that may have important after effects.

Here in summary are some of the facts we know about infantile eczema and a few suggestions that may help to prevent the disturbance or relieve the condition once it has appeared.

Infantile eczema is a manifestation of allergy. The skin condition we see is probably only a small part of the allergic disturbance. Like an iceberg, there's more below than above the surface.

MOST OFTEN, but no invariably, the cause of the allergy is hypersensitivity to cow's milk. You can eliminate that factor by nursing your baby as so many of the best informed mothers now are doing.

You can further diminish the chances for your baby suffering this particular hypersensitivity if, in addition, you eliminate cow's milk and dairy products from your own diet throughout the periods of carrying and nursing. Most especially is this advisable if you have known allergies.

In order to compensate for deficiencies that may arise as the result of a milk-free diet, you may substitute a soybean emulsion and foods of high calcium (lime) content. Such as shell food, sardines, canned mackerel or salmon, beans, peanuts, broccoli, collards, kale, dandelion greens, spinach, turnip greens, apricots, dates, rhubarb, frozen strawberries, raisins and processed cheeses made from goat milk.

If, despite your best efforts, your milk supply fails, try to find a neighborhood creche where mother's milk is banked or where the services of a "wet nurse" can be obtained.

One the rash has developed, see your doctor immediately or a baby specialist (pediatrician).

Most likely, you will be given a formula of soy bean emulsion or one with a meat base as a substitute for cow's milk.

DO NOT APPLY anything to the baby's skin except what is prescribed by doctor or pediatrician. Over-the-counter "eczema" preparations may contain medicinal to which the baby also is sensitive. You then may superimpose a "treatment dermatitis" on the already inflamed skin.

Dress the baby as lightly as possible using only allergen free materials recommended by your doctor. And launder these materials with allergen-free products recommended by your doctor, especially diapers.

All this is a lot of trouble, you may think and say, but it's a much better thing compared to the distress the baby will suffer and, indirectly, the anguished parents if the tender skin of the newborn takes on a boiled appearance.

This And That

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Millions of Americans daydream about getting away from it all and living a life of ease on a carefree island paradise in the South Seas. This may jolt them: One of the commonest surgical operations in such a paradise—Samoa—is for peptic ulcers!

It is said the average U.S. housewife now walks up to nine miles daily. (The distance between the canned peas and the chopped beef in our friendly neighborhood supermarkets must be getting longer.)

Pre-dawn shopping: A fur shop in Las Vegas stays open, until 3 a.m.—just in case a big winner decides to pick up a mink or sable while he's still ahead.

The criminal type: The typical fugitive on the FBI's "most wanted" list is in his early 40s, 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighs 158 pounds, has at least one tattoo, likes to drink, gamble and chase women. (Except for the tattoo mark, this description fits most of the suburbanites I know.)

Ever wonder what happened to the good ship Mayflower that brought over the pilgrims? It was broken up in England in 1629. Its stout wooden ribs were used to form the rafters of a building that still stands.

How they got started: Betty Hutton and her sister sang on street corners for the coins of amused passersby. Lew Ayres played piano in a jazz band.

What chance has a young actor in Hollywood of becoming a star? Less than one in a thousand.

But genius usually has a hard struggle. The Hotel Stanhope here recently unveiled a reproduction of Rembrandt's famed $2,300,000 painting, "Aristotle Contemplating the Bust of Homer." The frame alone for the reproduction cost $600, more than Rembrandt ever received for a painting in his lifetime. He was so hard up that he had to sell his first wife's grave to raise the money to bury his second wife.

Thirsty statistic: Americans now drink about 100 billion cups of coffee annually. So, who's nervous?

If you're normal, you probably have between 2,000 and 3,000 dreams a year—even though you may think you don't dream at all. In "The Science of Dreams," Edward Diamond says dreams help keep us sane by day by letting us "go insane" in our nightly sleep.

Laboratory experiments showed that people prevented from dreaming tended to develop hallucinations.

Wisecrack of the week: "People are foolish to live in the past," says singer Robert Weede. "There is no future in it."

No country spends more on health than America, but we don't have the lowest infant mortality rate. Sweden does.

Out of the mouths of babes: My nomination for the most haunting remark of the century is this: A little girl, after hearing Carl Sandburg describe a Civil War battle, looked up and asked him innocently, "Suppose they gave a war and no one came?"

Nature note: The potto, a fierce African creature resembling a monkey, is the only animal that has part of its backbone growing outside its body. It uses this sharp vestigial tailbone as a handy weapon for slashing its foes.

It was Samuel Johnson who observed, "Every man has a right to utter what he thinks truth, and every other man has a right to knock him down for it."

TWO MEN INDICTED
CINCINNATI (AP) — A federal grand jury has indicted two Hamilton men for alleged cattle rustling. Roscoe Jones Thomas, 46, and Lurman P. Rumley, 31, are cattle from a Warren County accused of taking seven head of farm Jan. 18 and transporting them to Indianapolis.

CHARGED WITH ARSON
CINCINNATI (AP) — Donald Appel, 32, of Cincinnati has been indicted on two charges of arson and attempts to burn property. He was arrested Feb. 20, and police say he admitted he set nine fires in the North Side area.

Employers Must File Reports

Many Domestic Employees Eligible for Social Security

Could you afford to pay your maid a pension for the rest of her life when she becomes too old or disabled to work for you any longer? Would you be willing to support her children if she were to die? Unfortunately, even many of us who can afford to hire household help could not afford the expense of trying to meet such obligations. But there is a way we can help.

Domestic workers who are paid as much as $50 cash in a calendar quarter from a single employer can receive social security credit for their earnings. But to get the credit, their earnings must be reported. And that's where you come in.

For employers must make a quarterly report to Internal Revenue Service when they pay a domestic worker as much as $50 cash wages in the quarter. These reports should be filed after the close of each calendar quarter and are due by April 30, July 31, October 31, and January 31 every year.

Most household employers will make their reports on Form 942. This is a special simplified form printed on the inside of a return envelope. If you are a household employer who is already on the mailing list of the District Director of Internal Revenue, one of these forms will be mailed to you before the end of December.

If social security taxes are due from a household employer who is not now on the mailing list, the employer should ask the district director for the form and give him her name and address to be added to the mailing list before the next quarterly return is due.

The amount of the social security tax is 6 1/4 per cent beginning with 1962 of the total cash wages paid to a household worker in a calendar quarter. The employee is expected to share this tax with the employer. However, it is the obligation of the employer to report and send the total tax of 6 1/4 per cent to the District Director of Internal Revenue.

The $50 cash wage test applies separately to each household worker in your employ, and no report or social security tax is due on any household worker to whom you pay less than $50 cash during the calendar quarter.

The Youngstown, Ohio Social Security Office is located at 35 Central Square. The Internal Revenue Office is located at 655 Wick Ave.

Three Immunization Clinics Scheduled at Rogers School

Preschool clinics have been scheduled March 19, April 16 and May 14 at the Rogers School. New pupils entering the school may receive immunizations to meet school requirements at the clinics.

Seven members were present at the directors meeting of Rogers Ruritan Club at the home of Wallace Sivaney Thursday. Plans for the membership drive to acquire 15 new members were discussed.

Cochairmen for the minstrel show, Rhapsody in Black III, are Richard Barnhouse of the Rogers Ruritan and John Garey of the Calcutta-East Liverpool Ruritans. The minstrel show will be March 31 at Beaver Local High School.

Rehearsals at the Rogers school are Tuesday evenings from 7 to 10 and Sunday afternoons from 2 to 4.

Dress rehearsal will be March 25 at 2 p.m. at Beaver Local High School. James Reid of East Palestine is the director.

The regular monthly meeting will be tonight at 6:30 at Clarkson Presbyterian Church Fellowship hall.

Wood Playing Preferential Role In Home Decorations

Home planners and decorators are relying heavily upon the natural beauty characteristics of wood to achieve individuality and charm, according to up-to-date reports from building and furniture sources.

In the building field, architectural authorities point out, this trend is evidenced by a growing preference for wood paneled walls, wood built-ins and wood room dividers and increased popularity for exposed hardwood floors, the trend in furniture, market surveys indicate, is to simplicity of design, with major ornamentation derived from emphasis on wood grains and figures.

The use of wood for wall paneling, which has been on the ascendancy for several years, is in line with today's preference for informality and casualness, according to the American Walnut Manufacturers' Association. Walnut also is being widely used for kitchen cabinets. In both living and working areas, home stylists assert, the use of walnut and other attractive woods provides a relaxed, congenial feeling.

At the recent summer furniture markets in Chicago and Grand Rapids, Mich., the accent was on wood grains for decorative effect. More groupings were shown in walnut, which is outstanding for its rich and raised grain patterns, than in any other wood species. Several outstanding groupings by noted designers took their inspiration from their unusual walnut grains.

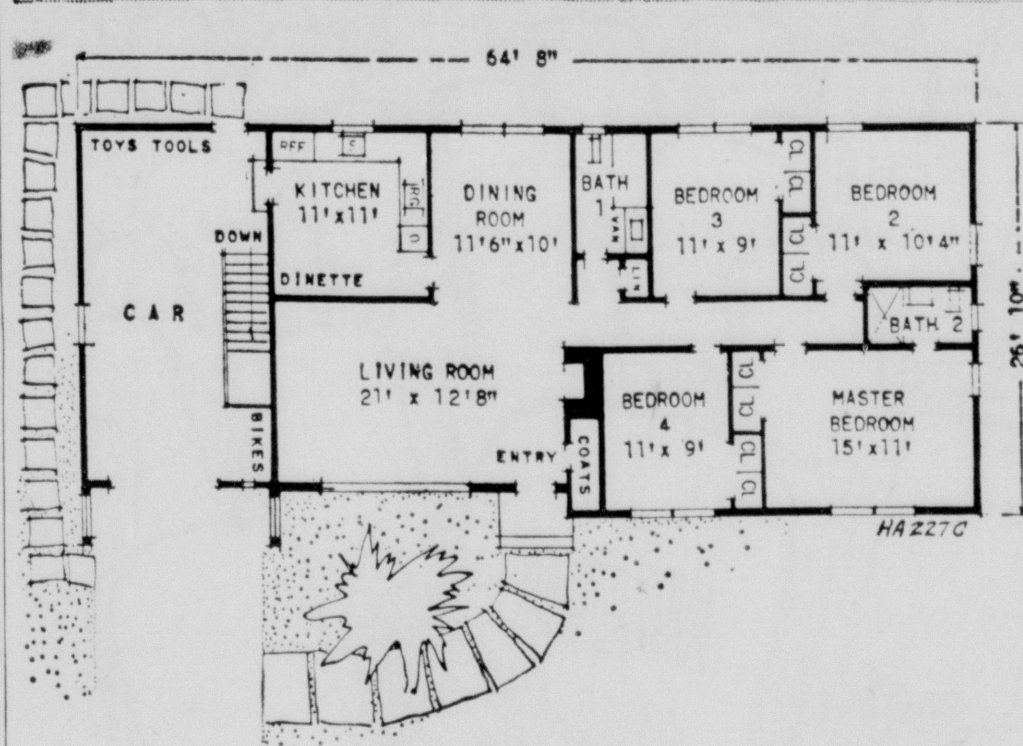

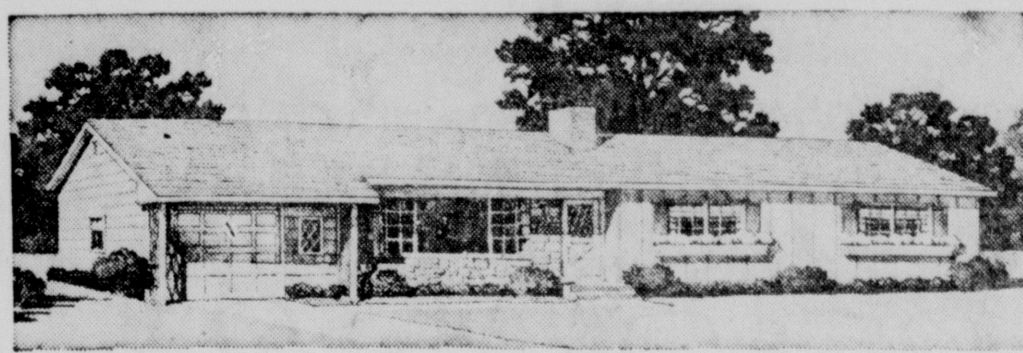

Again in keeping with the trend, a strong preference was noted at the furniture markets for woods finished in natural tones. It was particularly evident in walnut. Of the walnut dining room suites shown, 78.9 per cent were naturally finished. Lighter than natural colors were seen on 14.8 per cent. Walnut bedroom suites were 72.9 per cent in natural tones and 13.7 per cent in tones lighter than natural. The objective, obviously, is to make the most of the wood grain's distinctive attractiveness.

The use of wood parquetry and border designs remains popular, market observers reported. Considerable restraint, however, is shown in the matter of carvings and sculptured effects. Especially where several woods are mixed, finishes are carefully blended to permit grain characteristics to predominate.

Westville

Mrs. Hoy Smith was showered with birthday gifts when the 57 Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Eugene Courtney Wednesday evening. Prizes in 500 were won by Mrs. Richard Gednetz, Mrs. Al Grove and Mrs. Galen Culler.

Lunch was served. Mrs. George Grove will entertain in April.

THE LARGER FAMILY ON A MODERATE BUDGET will enjoy this four-bedroom ranch house in the economy bracket but with a look of luxury. The long line of the house is enhanced by the attached garage. This 1,330-square-foot house, Plan HA227C, was designed by Lester Cohen, Room 75, 117 W. 48th St., New York 36, N. Y.

Tips on Care of Water Heaters

You can't get along without hot water. Therefore, take care of the source—the water heater.

The temperature dial setting of an automatic water heater should normally be at or below 140 degrees F. Set it higher, though, for periods of peak use—combined operation of dishwasher and clothes washer, for instance, while baths are being taken. But consistent operation above 140 degrees, says the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau, means excessive wear on the water heater.

The burner of a gas-fired water heater is easily accessible and should be checked by your plumbing contractor periodically to keep it clear of dust or sediment. If your water heater is the storage type, drain a few quarts of water out of the bottom of the tank several times each year to keep sediment from accumulating in the tank bottom.

The Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau offers a ten-cent booklet titled "Plumbing Care and Repair," which contains more information on the care of water heaters as well as every other part of a plumbing system and its fixtures and fittings. The address is 35 East Wacker Drive, Chicago 1, Ill.

A final note here on hot water—you can keep your water bills low by tempering all hot water as it is used. Letting the hot water flow on and on by itself wastes not only water but fuel as well.

Zoning Officer Issues 3 Building Permits

Three building permits for construction totaling $8,900 were issued last week by F. S. Barkhoff, Jr., city zoning officer.

Don Santee will build an $8,000 five-room house on Barclay St. for Dorothy Sanlo of 808 E. 5th. Simon S. Wagner obtained a permit for a bedroom addition at his 943 E. 5th St. home. The estimated cost is $600.

Matt Drotteff purchased a $300 permit to remodel a bathroom at the Michael Binder, Jr., residence, 1095 E. 3rd St.

Only Common Sense Needed To Correct Home Hazards

The hazards that exist in the average home can be corrected by anyone. Only common sense is needed.

Make a survey of your home. Are there small throw rugs that are forever sliding and bunching up? Equip them with nonslip pads or coatings for the underside.

Do any of the larger rugs curl at the edges? Tack the edges to the floor before someone trips. Throughout the house electricity offers hazards when carelessly handled. An extension cord placed beneath a rug will become frayed and, if it shorts out, could set the rug on fire.

Heavy furniture pieces should not stand on a cord, nor should a cord pass through a doorway close on it. Keep cords away from radiators. The heat will injure the rubber or plastic covering.

If there are children in the house, install one of the patented wall outlets that cannot be easily probed with small objects.

Make certain that removable backs on television and radio sets are securely fastened.

Electrical appliances—with the exception of those that have heating elements such as irons, toasters and room heaters—should be grounded. This is important in the kitchen, basement or garage where moisture is present and where the user himself is grounded.

Run a wire from a bare metal screw on the body of the appliance to a water pipe or some other metal object that makes contact with the ground.

An area that is potentially hazardous is the bathroom. Tubs and showers should be equipped with hand rails and a rubber mat to prevent falls. No electrical switch should be within reach of tub or shower.

Check the medicine chest. It should not contain bare razor blades, poisons or dangerous drugs.

In the kitchen have a small ladder for reaching top shelves. Don't stand on a chair. A stove should not be located so that a curtain might blow over a burner. Knives and other sharp utensils should be kept out of reach of children. Disconnect the toaster when it is not in use.

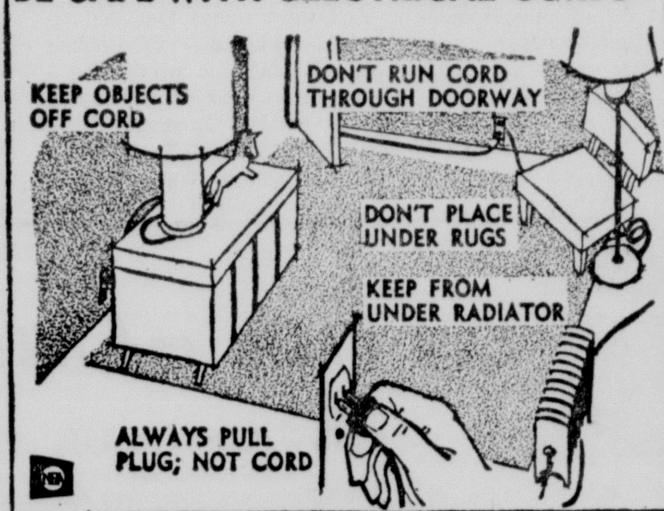

In the basement or garage or wherever items are stored—be aware of inflammable objects.

Rubber stair treads will make stair safer, but treads have a way of coming unfastened. Check them now and then.

HOLD-UP ATTEMPT FAILS

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Butler County deputies today sought a would-be bank robber who fled from the Seven Mile branch of the First National Bank of Hamilton after a teller dropped on the floor behind her counter and refused to get up. Deputies said the intruder got no money.

BE SAFE WITH ELECTRICAL CORDS

Here's The Answer

QUESTION: I recently had a patio built at the rear of the house. I now find that I should have had some kind of concrete step built from the patio into the backyard. The drop isn't much, just a few inches, but it is annoying and, under certain conditions, could be dangerous. I had to get a permit to have the patio built. Will I need one for the step, which I intend to build myself?

ANSWER: The chances are that no permit will be necessary, but regulations vary so much from community to community that you had better check with local authorities.

However, there is something else you should consider. If the present drop, from the concrete patio to the earth, is annoying and dangerous, the addition of a step won't help. The drop will be the same, which means everybody will have to be just as careful—one reason, by the way that single steps are never recommended. People simply don't see a single step as quickly as they do two or three.

Have you considered the possibility of an incline rather than a step? One advantage of this, aside from safety, is that any object with wheels can be rolled from the patio to the backyard rather than lifted.

QUESTION: I am going to remove the old finish from some furniture and then refinish it with gloss varnish. I have had considerable success in the past with removing old finishes, but I then used paint for the new coat. I understand that varnishing is a lot more difficult. Is there any advice you can give me?

ANSWER: Yes, varnishing requires more care than painting. The trick is to get the varnish to flow smoothly across the surface of the wood. Dip the brush only a third of its bristle length, lower it to the stock gently and draw it across in long, slow brush strokes. Raise the brush before you stop its movement.

In doing chairs and tables, turn them upside down and do the legs, stretchers, etc. Turn them rightside up and do the tops and outside surfaces last. Three coats will give a good result, sanding with a very fine grade of paper between each coat.

Dust is the big bugaboo when using varnish. Take every precaution to keep it off the wood before you start and off the varnish as you continue with the job. Avoid stirring up dust in the room.

QUESTION: Recently, a neighbor moved out of town and got rid of a lot of things in his home workshop. One of the things he gave me was an expensive brush that he had used for putting a clear finish on a dining room table. The other day I wanted to use the brush but found that it had hardened. I soaked it in turpentine but it did no good. Will a regular paint-brush cleaner do the job?

ANSWER: It is likely that the brush was used for shellac or lacquer, since turpentine would have had a softening effect if it had been used for varnish. Denatured alcohol is the proper solvent if the brush were used for shellac; lacquer thinner if the brush were used for lacquer. Most brush-cleaning preparations should be effective, but read the labels carefully to see whether they work on shellac or lacquer as well as varnish or regular oil paint.

Bathrooms Losing Antiseptic Look

Bathrooms are taking on glamour and losing their old antiseptic hospital look.

Warm, rich colors of wood in wall panels and cabinets make the difference. New waterproof wood seal coats and a variety of finishes which prevent the wood from absorbing moisture in the always moist bathrooms have stepped up wood's use.

Architects are finding that western red cedar makes particularly attractive wall and cabinet finish for bathrooms. This wood can be finished in clear lacquers to retain its natural warmth and rich tones, or it can be enameled in any desired color.

Some architects prefer the harder Douglas fir which has beauty when finished naturally and hardness for long wear. It also takes enamel or paint very well. Wall boards can be had in several patterns in these species of wood.

Action, Reaction, Counter-Reaction

There can be no reason for surprise if United States action to block Communists in South Viet Nam produces a violent reaction. A warning published in Pravda, Russian Communist party newspaper, spells out the intention of the Russian government to take steps to offset the U.S. buildup in South Viet Nam. Pravda says there will "alarm- ing consequences."

The last time this happened, the warning was issued in Peiping, capital of the Chinese People's Republic. It said if the United States persisted in its drive to reach and cross the Yalu River in the Korean War it would have to deal with the direct intervention of Chinese Communist troops. The Red Chinese weren't fooling. The consequences were alarming.

Before that, it had happened when the Japanese empire was putting down roots in China and warned the United States "to leave Asia to the Asiatics," a slogan that sounded presumptuous then but since then has become one of the facts of international relations. The "open door" has been slammed shut—with alarming consequences.

In the same way of thinking that causes

Americans to believe both American contin- ents should be left to the people who think of them as home, Asiatics and Africans con- tend their continents are not subject to non- Asiatic Intervention.

Americans do not have to agree that this is fair or logical. They do not have to like it. But it is important that they understand what it means Asiatics have a Monroe Doctrine too.

There can be no such thing as unresented and unopposed intervention in either Asia or Africa. The United States had no reason to believe it could intervene in South Viet Nam without causing a reaction in Moscow. The Moscow reaction will call for a counter- reaction in the United States, Great Britain and perhaps in Communist China.

No one should be surprised if complica- tions develop. The warning has been issued. The only question now is how long it will be until the United States issues a like warning about Cuba—"alarming consequen- ces," if interventionists persist in their course of action in Cuba. Or have all proprietary rights in the principle of the Monroe Doctrine been surrendered to Asians and Africans?

Letter Received and Noted

At the close of a printed blast against what he calls a "no-win" foreign policy, the United States senator from South Carolina, Strom Thurmond, says there will be more blasts to follow.

The number of this one was 8, and in- cluded in the same envelope was No. 7 (same theme), so apparently the blasting has been in progress awhile. Also, the let- terhead carried a picture of Sen. Thur- mond, so this is presumably part of the campaign to build up the South Carolinian as the strong man of a far-rightist move- ment.

WE HAVE NO OBJECTION to a Thur- mond buildup as such. It's all part of the political hurly-burly by which we govern ourselves. Foreigners don't understand how government can come out of so much chaos and sometimes it puzzles us, too.

But essentially it's an open marketplace for ideas, and anybody can take his chance or finding buyers. No one can claim he was denied the right to make a fool or hero of himself. It eliminates the gunfire that punctuates the record of governments in countries afraid to maintain free market- places.

However, to get back to Strom Thurmond and what it looks as if he was up to, the envelope in which he included us among newspapers he is flooding with his propa- ganda was marked "Public Document — Free."

ELSEWHERE on the envelope his name was printed in script, presumably his per- sonal signature. This means, of course, this man's attempt to build himself into some version of a southern-fried man on horse- back leading us children of darkness into the light is being added to the postal deficit.

We know only one way to discourage this, which is to throw into the wastebasket un- opened all franked mail, other than that from our own representatives and senators. This is what happened to Strom Thurmond's blasts numbered 1 to 6, and it is what will happen to all of them numbered 9 and up.

It would be better if this kind of junk mail never were sent at all.

Barring that happy eventuality, the best we can do is ditch it, unopened and unread.

Atrocity Has No Color?

There are Frenchmen who wonder why they are hated in Algeria.

They complain that Algerian Moslems should be grateful for everything Frenchmen have done for them. They regard Algerian nationalism as an unnatural emotion that must have been foisted on Arabs in Al- geria by mischief-makers — probably Com- munists.

They point out that France has been pa- tient and long-suffering about atrocities com- mitted by Moslems. Many of them still be- lieve the only way to settle the trouble in Algeria is to go in with guns and shoot it out, though France has been trying that for the last seven years or so avail.

And why are Frenchmen hated in Algeria? Why do French Algerians live in fear of their lives? Why is the toughest problem in settling the Algerian war the postwar se- curity of non-Arab elements of the popula- tion under an Algerian regime dominated by Arabs?

Part of the answer is atrocities against Moslems being committed routinely by the Secret Army Organization. In one day, 65 Arabs were murdered outright and 105 in- jured by terrorists identified with the die-hard forces of former French Gen. Raoul Salan.

These terrorists steal and pillage to sup- port themselves. They commit moral and legal crimes in both Algeria and France. They extort money and debase human dig- nity to maintain an illegal and unconscion- able campaign of terror.

Is it any wonder that Frenchmen are hat- ed in Algeria?

Is it any wonder that so many nonwhite Africans associate Frenchmen and other white men with everything vile and base in western civilization?

Not long ago in the Republic of Congo everything the natives did that was savage and violent was called an "atrocious." What chance did the Congo have of taking its place among the family of civilized nations, asked the skeptics, when its natives were committing "atrocities?"

What excuse could there be for these peo- ple emerging from a primitive state to think they were the equal of white men?

What excuse? Perhaps they had been read- ing the news from Algeria — about "atroci- ties" committed by white men against brown men.

Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Mortimer Topblower is in a new spec- ialized business. He has formed the All Purpose Street Parade Banner and Sign Co., and, from the demonstrations, espe- cially by the very young, he thinks he has struck gold. His speciality is a banner with the words "GO HOME" on it, with the name of or state of the person to be put in by demonstrators.

Other signs include "ACT NOW," "BE A GOOD AMERICAN," and "FORWARD TO A BETTER WORLD," which can be used for any type of protest against any- thing.

He offers banners in sizes and weights for these classifications: (1) Kids Under 14; (2) Kids Between 14 and 18; (3) Ages 16 to 19.

With each sign he will give free sugges- tions for hair and beard styles, suitable demonstration costumes and marching songs for groups of four or more.

"I am also offering a booklet (paperback) covering these subjects: 'How To Be Sure You Are in the Right Parade,' 'Hints On A Fast Switch To The Right Line If You Find You Are in Wrong One' and 'Does a Van Dyke Help In Giving Prestige to a Riot?'"

"A booklet is also in the works," says Mortimer, "which gives instructions in fol- lowing categories:

1. How to exasperate the police.
2. Flaunting the laws without half trying.
3. The right moment to sit down in street.
4. How to relax body while being thrown into the police car.
5. The importance of being tossed into police car in an area where photographers are massed.

Mortimer is working on a folding banner with collapsible stick, which can be raised and collapsed when needed. Also a Top- blower Corporation Special, which consists of a zipper sign which can change swiftly from "Down With Nuclear Subs." "Who Wants a Polaris?" and "Stop President Kennedy's Tests."

"Big money used to be gained in juvenile work by selling catchers' mitts, air rifles, breakfast foods, bubble gum, pogo sticks and gumdrops," Mr. Topblower said. "Today the dough is in equipment for street riots and general demonstrations."

AIR FORCE seeks wrestlers for spec- ialized training. Let's hope it bars profes- sionals in firm conviction that burlesque and vaudeville are no help to armed ser- vices. Still, there's a chance the Air Force might use a few pro-wrestlers in test to see whether ferocity of facial expressions can help win a war.

Supreme Court decided 7-2 that homeown- ers, forced to give up homes because of airport noise, vibrations, etc. . . . must be compensated. This upholds the belief that anybody with a house near an airport has same right to relax and sleep as any- body else.

An East German city has banned sale of diapers before baby arrives. This sounds like another blow at preparedness.

Soviets have built wall around part of new apartment house bought by them as Red headquarters in New York. Neighbors can't figure out reason. Maybe Russians just have a passion for cinder blocks.

Spoils of War

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

There are many who are sensi- tive over Hiroshima. Some bear scars. Some feel intellectually wounded. Perhaps I am less sen- sitive to it. Perhaps be- cause I flew there from Pearl Harbor via Tokyo. Perhaps my sensitiv- ity is dulled by the boom- ing Hiroshima shipyards of the Mitsubishi Shipbuilding Co. For a few weeks ago the famed Mitsubishi completed a 35,000 - ton tanker for the Soviets, gra- ciously named it the Lugansk and sent it down the ways to carry oil in the Russians lethal compe- tition with us.

This is no reflection on the gentlemen of Japan. The legacy of Hiroshima has not dulled their efficiency in making a profit be it in dollars or rubles. Be it from friends or from foes of the United States.

That stabilizes the yen and I would not want it to waver.

MY SENSITIVITIES run more to the security of our own peo- ple. In Syracuse the other day, for example, I learned there was a fine pottery industry. If the Japanese dump much more of their own china on us, they could wipe out this business and scores of jobs with it.

I travel this land and hear the same from the makers of base- ball gloves and hypodermic needles, glassware and fishing tackle and disturbed proucers of trans- istors and TV sets. Jobs disap- pear in the United State. Whole industries, too. But we play it fair with the Japanese.

Now it would be real reciprocal of them to return the favor. I write this now because there has just been entertained in the Blair House a Japanese labor leader— Minoru Takita. He is president of the Japan Trade Union Congress, with a message. He is anti-Com- munist. He will understand.

There are many of us who re- sent the recent Japanese - Soviet trade pacts. These have not yet been reported in the U.S. There will be many more of us when the details are known.

There is no doubt that the So- viet war-making complex is be- ing woven into the comparatively inaccessible Siberia. There is also no doubt that the Japanese are now helping the Russians make that complex a formidable mod- ern fortress.

There is no doubt, because on the afternoon of Feb. 23, the Russians and the Japanese signed a trade pact in the Tokyo For- eign Office. They agreed that this would be the forerunner of long-term aid to the vast Soviet Siberian Development Project.

ALREADY the material for So- viet "hardware" is moving steadily toward the U.S.S.R. from Ja- pan. There is heavy tonnage in electronic engineering machinery, sawmill facilities, ball bearings, rolled steel goods, carbon steel tubes, rolled stainless steel tubes, steel rope, conveyor belts and steel plate (30,000 tons). And ships and tankers, of course.

And word comes that the Ja- panese will not discriminate against either end of the Sin - Soviet bloc. That is, of course, if the Peiping Communist Chi- nese can pay. Word here is that the gentlemen of Japan now are ready to do business with Mao's official merchants.

This word was brought back to Peiping by a delegation of the Socialist party of Japan. The Socialist leader, Mosaburo Suzuki, headed the third Socialist party mission to Peiping last month.

He returned saying that his "mission has succeeded in pav- ing the way for economic inter- changes between the two coun- tries." These middlemen were necessary because there are no diplomatic relations between Tokyo and Peiping.

THE SHIPMENT of vital met- als and factory equipment to the Soviet bloc will undoubtedly aid the Japanese government's money problems. But the shipments will aid our enemy more. Why this doesn't excite what we refer to in stirring talks as the free world is puzzling. Perhaps the image of the enemy is not suf- ficiently sharp these days.

Perhaps the memory of the old scrap metal we shipped to Japan only to have it hurled back at us as munitions is not sufficiently sharp. Otherwise we might be more concerned over Japanese metals being hurled at us by the Sino-Soviet bloc somewhere in Laos or South Viet Nam.

It is, of course, not a simple problem. If the Japanese need economic help, it would be much cheaper in money and men and blood to provide that help. If the Soviets are not our enemy, we're blowing some $2 million defense dollars for nothing.

If we're not blowing those bil- lions on an arms boondoggle, and the Soviets are the threat, then the Japanese are dealing with the enemy.

Certainly they really do not wish to do this!

Nuclear Surprise

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Who Caused Delay In Testing Announcement?

Just who was responsible for the six - month delay on the part of the United States before it was announced that nuclear testing above the ground would be re- sumed? It wasn't the De- partment of Defense that was in the slightest de- gree to blame. Most of its ex- perts wanted testing resumed.

The mystery has not yet been cleared up. Although the Soviets resumed their tests last Septem- ber, it was not until President Kennedy's speech that the world was told that America would re- sume testing in the atmosphere, but with this qualification — if certain things could be agreed upon with the Soviets at a Ge- neva conference, any testing by America might be deferred.

During the last six months, con- siderable division, developed in the inner councils of the White House as to whether resumption of testing was wise.

It is not true, as has been re- ported in some circles, that a sub- stantial number of the President's advisers were opposed to the re- sumption of testing in the air. What is true is that a few of the influential advisers put up vehement arguments that did cause the President to hesitate.

Most military men have been repeatedly asking for the tests. This was the case, too, under the Eisenhower administration. The military men expected that when the Soviets resumed testing the United States promptly would do so, too.

The biggest single influence against testing is reported to have been that of the U.S. In- formation Agency, which is said to have argued that it would be harmful from a propaganda standpoint. It was contended, pri- marily, that world opinion would be mobilized against America.

Unfortunately, the real mistake was that the USIA itself had failed to emphasize repeatedly to the whole world, beginning last September, that when the Rus- sians broke their own morator- ium, the United States was free to do likewise and should resume testing.

THE AMERICAN position would have been stronger, more- over, if the action of the Soviet Union had been followed by an immediate decision on the part of the Kennedy administration to resume testing as quickly as pos- sible and to make no further announcement as to dates when tests would be held.

The same six - month period could have been utilized in ad- vising the world that an overem- phasis had been placed on the alleged harm that is supposed to come from testing in the air.

It was not until President Ken- nedy's speech of March 2 that the country was officially ad- vised, in effect, that much of the anti-test propaganda about harm- ful fallout was spurious.

The question before the Ameri- can people has become clear- cut. Since testing doesn't involve — as the President now says — any more effect than one-fiftieth of what occurs in natural ra- dioactivity of everyday life in dif- ferent parts of this country, then the defense of the United States against a nuclear attack is so important that any propaganda from the Soviet side can readily be refuted, if not ignored.

Scientific advice has by no means been unanimous as to the wisdom of resuming test. Some scientists have advised the Presi- dent against resuming tests. Too many scientists, however, have become involved in arguments dealing with political and ideo- logical matters.

ALL THAT the scientists real- ly should have been telling the American government is what the value of the tests could be in building the American deterrent program against the Soviet Union. It isn't the province of sci- entists to take sides as to what is or is not good propaganda.

The Atomic Energy Commis- sion has been tending more and more to the idea that tests are absolutely imperative. It is re- ported that, among the Presi- dent's advisers, CIA Chief Mc- Cone and Attorney General Ken- nedy are on that side, too.

What is feared, however, is that the President, torn by con- flicting views among his intimate advisers, may give too much weight even now to the propa- ganda aspect and may go along finally with a plan for limited tests only. This won't please the experts on the military side who feel confident they know what is absolutely necessary for Ameri- ca to do from a defense stand- point in the nuclear field.

They insist that more know- ledge must be obtained from new tests in order to overcome what the Soviet Union has learned in its recent experi- ments.

So what's happening in the dis- cussions inside the White House is an all-important phase of the fateful controversy over the re- sumption of nuclear tes-.

The New Crop

By TRUMAN TWILL

The first lamb arrived during the night of March 5-6. It was dry and frisky at 6 a.m., so it must have been born about midnight.

The second was born about 24 hours later.

A confession is in order this year because something has gone out of the lambing routine that once made it the high point of the year.

The deepest satisfaction I ex- pect to have this spring came from the obvious pleasure of a friend who sidled into the sheep business for the same reason we got into it at our place—to keep the grass mowed.

He had bad luck at first, in- cluding the worst luck a sheep- man can have—sheep-killing dogs. But in the last year things have been shaping up neat and pretty.

When he called me last Sunday to tell me his third set of twins in 24 hours had arrived, I went over to feel happy in his behalf. It reminded me of the first lambs ever born at the Twillery. The lady I look at lamb-littered scenery with called me at the of- fice to announce the news. I was scheduled to take in a free ban- quet that night, the one thing most nearly calculated to keep me from changing my mind.

This was different. I went home immediately to marvel at this miracle that was going on in our cobwebbed barn. There were tri- plets. But No. 3 never made it out of the birth sack. It was as if he had been packaged for de- livery in a clear plastic bag that never had been opened.

Since then I have seen this un- usual sight several times and have saved lambs that otherwise would have smothered a-borning. But the most unusual thing about these remarkable creatures is their abil- ity to walk, run, jump and eat within a matter of a few minutes under normal conditions.

I picked up the second lamb of this year's crop so soon after it was born it hadn't stood up yet. It was still carrying the heat of its mother's body when I carried it to the "drying department" where infrared lights help evap- orate moisture from the new lambs' tightly curled fleeces.

In the few minutes required for me to go to the house for old rags to soak up the excess moisture, the lamb had learned how to walk forward (they always walk backward first, fall down, then try the other direction) kneel and nurse. It was nursing when I got back to the barn.

A few minutes later it was shaking itself like a dog and get- ting the feel of tentative stiff- legged jumps. This is par. If a lamb isn't doing everything it needs to to survive in the first half hour of its life, it is going to have a rough time.

But it must be that I have seen it too often.

Years ago, I thought nothing of staying up all night for fear I'd miss something. Now I go to bed, unless it turns out to be a cold night. With sheep it isn't like it is with women, who can wake up the household in time to make the trip to the hospital.

I have speculated about a de- vice that would ring a bell in the house, but I'm stuck on an important detail. I wouldn't know in advance which ewe to hook it up to.

It's getting on toward spring. When lambs arrive, can blossoms be far behind . . . something like that.

Matter of Fact

A two-inch-long "stop and go light" is the luminous rail- road worm of South America. He got his name for obvious rea- sons. At his head a red light glows; greenish yellow lights adorn each side. Sometimes this glowworm's lights are turned off. But blow on him and his red signal flashes. His green lights will shine any- time you give him a little shake. You just have to know the com- bination.

Salem Pupils Win Top Music Ratings

Salem High School students returned from the district solo and ensemble contest in Canton McKinley High School Saturday with eight superior ratings.

Receiving the top ratings were: Gary Hasson, vocal; Nancy Boyd, piano; Lois Whinnery, clarinet; Lynne Miller, vocal; Clyde Miller, vocal; Elaine Underwood, cornet; Joe Horning, tuba, and the brass sextet comprised of Elaine Underwood, Rick Shoop, Lynne Miller, Dale Schaeffer, Joe Horning and Lloyd Billman.

Other local contestants and their ratings are: Kay Koontz, excellent, flute; Georgiana Wukotich, good, vocal; Karl Fieldhouse, fair, trombone; John Stadler, excellent, cornet; Kathleen Walton, excellent, vocal, and Sue White, fair, clarinet.

Richard Howenstine, music instructor, accompanied the students.

Thief Swaps Autos In Lisbon Sunday

LISBON — Village police early Sunday found a stolen car before it was reported missing and then reported a stolen car four hours later, which has not been recovered.

At 7 a.m. Sunday they found a 1951 Chevrolet two-door sedan parked on E. Lincoln Way and belonging to William L. Haney of Chester, W. Va., who didn't know it was stolen until police called him.

At 11 a.m. Mrs. Joan Cope of 208 W. Washington St. reported her 1953 black Chevrolet sedan license 1-94-Y stolen.

Police believe the same person was responsible for both thefts.

PERRY LODGE TO MEET — Perry Lodge will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple to confer the entered apprentice degree.

AT WITNESSES MEETING

Over 40 members of the local Jehovah's Witnesses were among the crowd of 1,847 at Packard Music Hall Sunday afternoon when James W. Filson, Watchtower official, spoke. Saturday afternoon 34 new ministers were ordained at the YWCA there.

Dave Williams, Tourney Director, Is Heart Victim

David M. Williams, 64, principal at Volney Rogers Junior High School in Youngstown and a well-known director of scholastic basketball tournaments in the Youngstown district, died of a heart attack at 4 a.m. Sunday at his home, 3015 Hudson Drive.

Mr. Williams was on hand at the NEO District basketball finals Saturday night at South High fieldhouse when the Salem High School Quakers lost to South. A week ago Mr. Williams had presented the sectional trophy to the Quakers. He had been tournament director for the past 18 years.

His wife and three children survive.

Services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday on the Boardman Christian Church where the body will lie in state from 9 a.m. until time of the service. Rev. Ashley Booth will officiate.

Friends may call Tuesday from 4 to 9 p.m. at the Davis-Velker Funeral Home in Youngstown.

C. of C. Sponsoring Politics Courses

The Salem Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring two more courses in practical politics. The courses will run simultaneously on Mondays and Tuesdays, beginning tonight and tomorrow.

These two-hour workshop classes will be held one a week for nine weeks. Classes will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. at 1098 E. State St. Instructors will be Glen Moffett and Richard Cobourn.

Three previous practical politics courses taught here were termed very successful by the Chamber.

Anyone interested in signing up for the classes which begin tonight and tomorrow may do so by contacting Roy G. Fennema, chairman of the Chamber's political action committee, or by calling the Chamber of Commerce office, ED 7-3473. Fennema reports that more than 20 persons have already signed up.

Machines and energy division: Pete Albertsen, Jet Propulsion," and tied for second place, Jim Shasteen, "Aluminum," and Ward Hiltbrand, "Our Future in Solar Energy."

Ninth grade: Carl Ostrom, "Epilepsy."

About 150 projects were on display during the fair which was visited by about 750 persons.

The work was the result of the regular science program at the Salem Junior High School plus the Saturday morning "science enrichment" classes conducted by Walter Newton, one of the instructors. Newton said the science fair will be an annual event.

A number of city organizations and clubs provided the awards. Judges were teachers and supervisors of county schools. They are:

Daniel Friedberg, Virgil Roman, David Pavlansky, Mrs. Frank Painter and Robert Scanlon, Leetonia;

Burton Anderson, Pat Frazzini and Jim Hawkins of Crestview, Fairfield-Waterford; Mrs. Franklin Humphrey, United Local; Jack Repasky and Mrs. Robert Richardson, Greenford; Mrs. Frank Solak, county school system; Richard Hardy, Beaver Local; Kermit Klingerman, Miss Nora Kennedy, Mrs. Marjorie Armstrong, Mrs. Leslie Ashoff and Mrs. Paul Loop, Boardman.

750 Persons at Concert Program

The 60th concert presented by the Northern Columbiana County Community Concerts Association was enjoyed by an audience of 750 when Donald Gramm, bass baritone, presented a program on Sunday afternoon in the Salem Junior High School auditorium.

Gramm demonstrated his versatility as an artist as he featured such numbers as, "O, du mein holder Abendstern," from Tannhauser, to the Blue Mountain Ballads by Paul Bowles, based on poems by Tennessee Williams.

The Community Concerts Association will begin its membership campaign March 19, for renewals, and the week of March 26 for new members.

when their car was struck by a train at a crossing just south of Salem on Rt. 45.

Columbiana County has now recorded eight traffic deaths this year, compared to four at this time in 1961.

Born in East Palestine

Wudske was born Nov. 25, 1937, in East Palestine, a son of Lawrence and Betty McGuckin Wudske, Sr. He had attended East Palestine schools.

He had been employed by the National Rubber Machinery Co. for the past six years. He was a member of the East Palestine Church of Christ and the Sportsmen's Club of Washingtonville.

Besides his parents, he is survived by three sisters, Linda and Jody Wudske, both at home, and Diana, who is in the Ursuline convent in Youngstown; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. George Wilson of East Palestine; and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wudske of Beaver Falls.

Services will be 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Van Dyke Funeral Home in East Palestine, with Rev. Dan Davis, pastor of the First Church of Christ, officiating. Burial will be in Glenview Cemetery at East Palestine.

Friends may call tonight and Tuesday from 7 to 9.

Blake was born Sept. 3, 1937, a son of the late Merle Blake and Mrs. Margaret Veon Blake, now of California.

A laborer, he last worked in California. He had served in the Army.

Surviving, in addition to his mother, are five sisters, Mrs. Dorothy Garis, with whom he lived, Mrs. Rosemary Stuckey of New Waterford, Mrs. Betty Jean Lester of Unity, Mrs. Walter Valentine of East Palestine and Mrs. Joan Suggs of San Diego, Calif.; six brothers, Merle Blake, Jr., of East Palestine, Cecil of New Castle, Pa., Eugene of San Diego, Airman 3c. Larry Blake, stationed on Guam, and Ralph and Ronnie, both of East Palestine; and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Lawrence Veon of East Palestine.

Services will be 1 p.m. Thursday at the Van Dyke Funeral Home, in charge of Rev. Robert Dyke of East Palestine, pastor of the Christian Church. Burial will be in Glenview Cemetery.

Friends may call Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m. at the funeral home.

Three accidents were investigated Saturday by the Patrol.

An RD 2, Wellsville, mother and her eight-year-old son were treated by a Lisbon doctor for injuries suffered in a two-car crash at the junction of Rt. 30 and Rt. 267, west of Cannons Mills, at 7:15 p.m.

Hurt were:

Mrs. Irma Torma, 40, bruised left shoulder.

John Torma, Jr., 8, lacerations of the lower lip.

The injured were passengers in a car operated by John Torma, 43, the father. According to the Patrol, Ivan L. Haggard, 23, of 347 N. 5th St., Sebring, was driving north when he was unable to stop behind a car which had stopped to make a left turn. Haggard swerved left of center into the path of Torma's southbound car.

Haggard was arrested for reckless operation.

Joseph McConaughy, 19, of Beaver, Pa., was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance after his pick-up truck crashed into an auto carrier truck on Rt. 154, three-tenths mile west of Rogers, at 12:50 p.m.

The Patrol said Arnell Howell, 36, of Rogers, slowed down to turn into a private driveway when his vehicle was struck from behind by McConaughy's truck.

Cars operated by Frank J. Diehl, 41, of Seveaken Lake, RD 2, Salem, and Barbara Ann Cook, 16, of 114 High St., Canfield, collided on Seveaken Rd., about four miles southwest of Salem, at 2:15 p.m. Both vehicles received moderate damage.

Diehl came over the crest of a hill left of center, the Patrol said, and sideswiped the car driven by the Canfield girl. Diehl's car then slid off the road and struck a tree.

Youngstown South Ends Salem Tourney Hopes 67-55

TOURNEY TRAIL ENDS—These action shots were captured in Salem's 67-55 defeat to South in the District final Saturday night at Youngstown South Field House. In the top photo, the "big boys" go up after a rebound as the elusive ball bounces back to Salem's Bob Eskay. Bill Beery of the Quakers is 32, while 15 is South's Roy White and 45 is John Tensley. In photo at bottom, a South player hauls down a rebound as Ted Thorne (34) makes an over-the-shoulder effort. Other Salem players are Allen Ewing (20) and Jerry Wonnhas, far right. South cagers are Henry Orr (53), Jim Jones (25) and Tensley (45).

Clubs Open Exhibition Season

S.Francisco Nips Cleveland; Chisox, Mets, Angels Win

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The scorecard for the first two days of major-league baseball's exhibition season shows:

1. A narrowly averted million-dollar accident when third baseman Ron Santo and experimental first baseman Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs collided with a thud while chasing a pop up in a game with Boston.

2. Mack (The Knife) Jones, rookie hopeful with the Milwaukee Braves, leading the home run hitters.

3. Cincinnati's National League champion Reds solidly whacked in both games with Chicago's White Sox.

Santo, the Cubs' outstanding third baseman selected as the sophomore of the year after a 1961 campaign in which he hit at a .284 clip with 23 homers and 83 RBI, was carried off the field on a stretcher during Sunday's 6-5 loss to the Red Sox at Scottsdale, Ariz.

Chasing a foul pop in the sixth inning, Santo crashed into Banks and was knocked down. He rose, then collapsed. Taken to a hospital, examination showed Santo suffered rib bruises from a knee blow to the solar plexus area. Banks was not hurt.

Jones, a .326 swinger at Louisville up for his second try with the Braves, stroked a solo homer in a losing effort Saturday, then powered the Braves to a 10-6 thumping of Detroit at Bradenton, Fla., Sunday, with a pair that accounted for five runs.

The Reds lost their opener to the White Sox 8-2 and were kicked around 10-3 in Sunday's game at Tampa, Fla., with three first-line pitchers—Jim O'Toole, Bob Purkey and Jim Brosnan—allowing 10 hits. The trio accounted for 45 wins last season.

The National League's two new entries—New York and Houston—had one victory in four games after the weekend action. The Mets edged St. Louis 4-3 Sunday at St. Petersburg to check into the win column, but the Colts were beaten 8-7 by the Los Angeles Angels at Palm Springs, Calif.

Quakers Falter In 2nd Half After Good Start

By LYNN BROWNE
News Sports Writer

The Salem Quakers came to a dead end on the tourney trail Saturday night as they blew an 11 point first quarter lead and bowed to the Youngstown South Warriors 67-55 in the District final at the South High Field House.

It was the second time this season the Quakers lost to the Warriors and the point spread was the same in both games—12. Twelve seems to be the South squad's lucky number; they upset the Liberty Leopards by 12 points to gain the finals. South will enter Regional play at Kent this week.

Both squads were awarded trophies after the game. South was awarded the District champion trophy and the Quakers the runner-up trophy.

Over 3,000 fans watched as Salem appeared to be on its way to victory in the first period. The Quakers outdid their hosts at everything and led by co-captains Bob Eskay and Ted Thorne scampored to a 21-10 margin at the first quarter post.

Junior Bill Beery potted two free throws to open scoring in the second period but things turned cold for the Quakers and the Warriors chipped away at Salem's lead and were down by only three counters (31-28) as the teams entered the dressing rooms at the intermission.

SOUTH WAS not to be denied in the third quarter. They pressed the locals and moved to a 35-31 lead before 30 seconds of the stanza had elapsed. The speedy Warriors went on to out - score Salem 21-9 and held a comfortable 49-40 margin as the game entered the last period.

Things didn't improve for the Quakers in the final canto. They continually lost the ball on turn overs and had little resemblance to the polished basketball machine that disposed of Struthers and routed Niles in earlier tourney play.

Coach Cabas said the Warriors

Cabas Gets Offer At Southern College

Coach John Cabas said today that he may be interviewed within the next two weeks for the head mentor post at one of the major southern colleges.

Cabas, who led the Salem squad to a 20-3 season mark, said that he could not name the college because the post was not yet officially open.

"The school asked their coach not to make a statement as yet, so that a screening board can have a chance to interview potential successors," he said.

played like a possessed ball club. "I guess it shows that a team can get up for two big games in a row," he said.

Continuing, he added, "I never thought I'd see us fall apart the way we did, though."

Cabas said that the turning point in the game was when, in the third period, the Quakers, down by six points, lost the ball twice on turn-overs and South went on to score. "We were never in the game after that," he remarked.

SOUTH'S Coach Merle Rosselle said the Quakers were a real good ball team. "I under-estimated them," he said. "I didn't think they'd give us that much trouble."

"John (Cabas) did a great job," he said. "He had the right idea of what to do to break us up, but we got lucky and things broke our way."

When asked if he changed strategy after the first period to account for his team's comeback in the second period, Rosselle said "No. I have no secrets. It was the boys' determination and good shooting that did it."

Niles head Coach Joe Bassett, who had little to say after Salem drubbed his Red Dragons out of tourney play 75-50 in action Wednesday, gave his congratulations to Rosselle in the dressing room after the game. "It really did my heart good to see that," he said.

South used almost identical tactics against the Quakers as it did in the first game. About the only thing that didn't work as well was their "pot-hanger" play. The Warriors didn't use a full - court press at the outset of the game but when they did start using it, it paved the way to victory.

A WELL-BALANCED scoring attack and control of the boards after the first quarter also added to the Warriors' victory. John Tensley and Roy White paced the victors with 15 counters each, followed closely by Ron Johnson with 14 and Jim Jones with 13.

Eskay capped game scoring honors as he potted eight floor shots in 11 tries and added a charity toss for 17 tallies. John Borrelli and Thorne were the only other Quakers to hit in double figures, meshing 10 apiece.

The tilt closed the door on the high school cage careers of seven Salem seniors. Playing their last game in a Quaker uniform were Thorne, Eskay, Borrelli, Gary Jeffries, Jerry Wonnhas, Sam Watson and Allen Ewing. They all saw action in Saturday's clash.

Although they have been nudged from tourney action, the Quakers posted a fine season record, winning 20 of 23 encounters. Other than South the only team to better them was Akron Central, 53-49, in the second game of the season.

Lakewood Wins Swim Crown

Three New Records Set During Finals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A new champion sits on Ohio's high school swimming throne. Lakewood, runner-up for the crown in 1960, captured the 35th annual championship Saturday, removing Canton McKinley from the honored spot it has held for the last six years.

However, the Cuyahoga County paddlers can thank Akron Buchtel for not having to share the title with Upper Arlington.

Going into the final event, the 200-yard freestyle relay, Lakewood was well out in front with 32 points. The Lakewood relay team, however, could get only a fifth place—four points — in the final race while Upper Arlington was barely nipped by Buchtel for first and had to settle for 10 points. A first would have given the Bears 14 points and deadlocked them with Lakewood.

Three record were set and two were tied during the finals.

Tim Beard of Mansfield erased a 24-hour-old mark in the 400-yard freestyle, covering the distance in 4:15.6. Charles Mohaupt of Cuyahoga Falls, who finished second, had set the previous record of 4:18.2 in the preliminaries Friday.

Shaker Heights' Bill Smith topped his own mark in the 100 breaststroke in a time of 1:06 flat. He won the event last year in 1:07.4.

Geoff d'Attri of Kent State High lowered the 200 individual medley mark by two seconds to 2:07.3.

Dave Wilt of Lima tied his :50.1 record in the 100 freestyle and Rick Schneider of Cleveland Col-linwood equaled the 1:54.9 mark in the 200 freestyle.

Here's the way the teams finished:

Lakewood 36, Upper Arlington 32, Shaker Heights 26, Cuyahoga Falls 21, Berea 20, Cleveland Heights, Kent State and Akron Buchtel 19, Lima 18, Warren 12, Mansfield and Canton McKinley 11, Springfield North 10, Cincinnati St. Xavier and Sandusky 9, Cincinnati Western Hills and Euclid 3, Akron Hoban and Bexley 2, and Worthington, Fairview, Columbus Academy and Cincinnati Woodward 1.

The New York Yankees will open the 1962 baseball season in Detroit for the first time in American League history.

The average National Football League game ran two hours and 35 minutes from kickoff to final gun during the 1961 season.

There were 11 entries in the first U.S. Open golf tournament in 1895. Last year there were 2,449.

32 Ohio Schools Will Start Regional Play This Week

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sixteen Class AA and 16 Class A teams, with a combined record of 631 wins and 101 losses, dash into regional play this weekend in Ohio's high school basketball tournaments.

The 32 squads are the survivors of 933 which started down the long trail to the March 24 state championship games. Eight quintets, four in each class, will emerge from the regionals for the championship finals next week at St. John Arena.

The 16 class AA squads, last of the 433 to remain in the running, are headed by Cleveland East Tech's 1958 and 1959 state kings.

Pensacola Tourney Won By Sanders

By ROSS M. HAGEN
PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Doug Sanders sank a series of pressure-packed birdie putts and won the Pensacola Open Golf Tournament, his first victory of the year.

Weathering a strong rally by Don Fairfield, the 28-year-old Sanders closed with a 3-under-par 69 Sunday for a 270 total and $2,800 first money. Fairfield fired a 67 for 271.

With Fairfield applying the pressure, Sanders stroked in birdie putts on the 11th, 12th and 13th holes. But Fairfield, who started the round three strokes off the pace, drew even on the short 16th with a birdie-deuce against Sander's bogey-4.

Undaunted, Sanders got the two stroke margin back on the next hole by sinking a 20-foot birdie putt while Fairfield missed a 3-footer and took a bogey 5.

On the final hole, Fairfield had a par 4 and Sanders, taking no chances after blasting out of a sand trap nicely, settled for a bogey.

Billy Maxwell and Paul Harney shared third place with 273. Both shot 69s on the final round. Tommy Bolt, the defending champion, finished in a tie for 20th at 281.

The final day's best score was a 64 by former national amateur champion Jack Nicklaus. Now a pro, Nicklaus had a 280 total, good for a tie for 16th and $450.

The Scarabs were voted No. 1 by the state's sports writers in the final Associated Press poll.

In Class A, where 500 teams started down "heartbreak highway," the 1961 champion Ayersville Pilots are favored. The De-fiance County team was top-ranked all through the weekly polls.

But, after a series of district final upsets which swept highly-rated talent from the scene, anything can happen in the lose-and-out series.

Urbana, runnerup to Portsmouth for the 1961 Class AA crown and sporting a 22 - game winning streak, was ousted 81-74 by Clayton Northmont, a consolidated school northwest of Dayton. Middletown's seven - time champions were victimized 71-67 by Hamilton Taft, second in the state rankings and winner of 23 in a row.

But the heaviest damage came in Class A. Third-ranked Iron-dale Stanton Local's 23-game winning streak was halted 63-52 by Berlin Hiland; seventh-ranked Fostoria St. Wendelin bowed 62-52 to Miller City's 1950 champions; 10th-ranked Carlisle was dumped 62-55 by Cincinnati DePorres, and Zanesville Rosecrans, after winning 22 in a row, was eliminated 64-60 by Beverly Fort Frye.

When the district smoke cleared, six of the Class AA top 10 were still aboard, but only two of the Class A elite were among the survivors.

In Class AA the top 10 teams remaining were East Tech (1), Hamilton Taft (2), Mansfield St. Peter (4), Toledo Central (5), Dayton Chaminade (7) and Mar-jetta (10). The first three make up the unbeaten contingent, the other three have bowed once— for an overall record of 134-3.

Only top-ranked Ayersville and sixth-rated Fort Frye remain of the Class A top 10—and both are unbeaten. The Pilots are 25-0, Fort Frye 24-0.

Bowling Green Faces Butler In Opening NCAA Contest

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Big-time college basketball's annual post-season carnivals start tonight. But a prime bit of unfinished business remains before a clear line can be taken on either of the major tournaments.

The single spot left in each of the two classics, the coast-to-coast NCAA and the National Invitation at New York, will be filled after tonight's showdown between Cincinnati and Bradley at Evansville, Ind. The two clubs tied for the Missouri Valley title. The winner gets the conference NCAA berth while the loser goes to the NIT.

Attention is focused on the game principally because Cincinnati captured the national championship in last year's NCAA by defeating mighty Ohio State and another clash between the Bearcats and Buckeyes has been long awaited.

The NCAA, with 16 conference representatives and 9 independent teams gunning for the crown, begins play tonight. First-round action will be completed Tuesday night, and the four regional semifinals and finals are set for Friday and Saturday. National semifinals and finals will be staged at Louisville Friday and Saturday, March 23-24.

The 12-team NIT has six double-headers set for Madison Square Garden, including first-round competition Thursday night and Saturday afternoon. Quarterfinals will be played Saturday night and Tuesday night, March 20. The semifinals are Thursday night, March 22, and the title match Saturday afternoon, March 24.

Here is the NCAA schedule:

East at Philadelphia tonight—Wake Forest (Atlantic Coast) vs. Yale (Ivy League); Massachusetts (Yankee) vs. Villanova (at large). The Wake Forest-Yale winner plays St. Joseph's of Pennsylvania (Middle Atlantic), and the West Virginia-Villanova winner meets the NYU-Massachusetts winner in the regional semifinals at the University of Maryland.

Midwest at the University of Kentucky tonight—Bowling Green (Mid-American) vs. Butler (at large); and Western Kentucky (Ohio Valley) vs. Detroit (at large). Regional semifinals at the University of Iowa pits the Bowling Green-Butler winner against ing Green-Butler winner against Kentucky (Southeastern) and the Western Kentucky-Detroit winner against Ohio State (Big Ten).

Midwest at Southern Methodist tonight—Texas Tech (Southwest) vs. Air Force (at large); and Creighton (at large) vs. Memphis State (at large). The Texas Tech-Air Force winner meets Colorado (Big Eight) and the Creighton-Memphis State winner takes on Cincinnati or Bradley in the regional semifinals at Kansas State.

West at Oregon State Tuesday night—Oregon State (at large) vs. Seattle (at large) and Utah State (Skyline) vs. Arizona State University (Border). The Oregon State-Seattle winner faces Pepperdine (WCAC); and the Utah State-Arizona State winner plays UCLA (Big Five) at Brigham Young in the regional semifinals.

Loyola of Chicago, St. John's of New York, Houston and Cincinnati or Bradley are seeded teams in the 25th annual NIT, drawing byes into the quarterfinals.

Wichita plays Dayton and Temple in the opening double-header Thursday night. Holy Cross meets Colorado State University and Duquesne goes against Navy in Saturday afternoon's first-round games.

NCAA Play Opens Tonight

Cincinnati, Bradley Vie For Tournament Berth

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Cincinnati and Bowling Green, two of Ohio's basketball powerhouses, have some away - from - home chores tonight which could have a big bearing on the NCAA championship.

The Queen City Bearcats, defending national champions, tangle with Bradley at Evansville, Ind. Its a neutral floor playoff game to decide the Missouri Valley Conference crown and the league's NCAA representative.

Cincinnati has to win to get a title-defending chance — and another crack at top-ranked Ohio State. A year ago the 'Cats defeated the Bucks in an overtime for the NCAA laurels—and both teams would like to try it again.

Bowling Green, king of the rugged Mid-American Conference, takes its 21-3 record against Butler of Indianapolis (20-5) in the opening NCAA round at Lexington, Ky., tonight. If they win, the Bee-Ges move on to Iowa City next Friday to battle Kentucky's Wildcats in the regional meet.

Ashland meets Prairie View, Tex., in the NAIA at Kansas City tonight.

Wittenberg and Dayton get into the act Thursday. The Gem City Flyers meet Wichita in Madison Square Garden in the NIT opening round, while Wittenberg

Budd Leads Villanova To IC4A Team Title

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The world's fastest human is mapping plans to become even a faster world's fastest human.

Traditionally, the holder of the 100-yard record is awarded the title of the world's fastest human. Robert Hayes of Florida A&M, has tied the record but it hasn't been recognized yet.

"I'll be perfectly happy to hit 9.1 for the 100," Budd said today. "I'm not sure I can get down to 9 flat, though. If it comes, all right. But I'm setting my sights on 9.1."

Budd equalled the indoor 60-yard sprint record of 6 flat twice during the IC4A championships Saturday. He hit it in an afternoon heat and again in the final in the evening in Madison Square Garden. Herb Carper (once) and Roscoe Cook (three times) are the only other 6 second men around.

"I think I can do 5.9 for the 60-yard dash," Budd volunteered. "The start is the key to it. You have to get off to a perfect start if you're going to set any kind of a record."

Budd's victory led Villanova to the IC4A team title. The Wildcats from the Main Line scored 30½ points to run away from the field. Defending champion Yale was second with 16½, followed by NYU with 15½, Army with 14 and Fordham with 12.

Villanova produced three other winners—the 2-mile relay (7:45.2), Vic Zvolak in the mile (4:09.3) and Roland Cruz in the pole vault (15½).

Both Budd and Cruz broke meet records. Other meet record-breakers included Gary Gubner of NYU in the shotput (64-3½), Bob Mack of Yale in the 2-mile (8:58.3) an Ted Bailey of Harvard in the 35-pound weight throw (63.5).

Ohio Dominates Cage Selections

NEW YORK (AP)—Ohio dominated the All-America selections made by the U. S. Basketball Writers Association for Look Magazine, it was announced today.

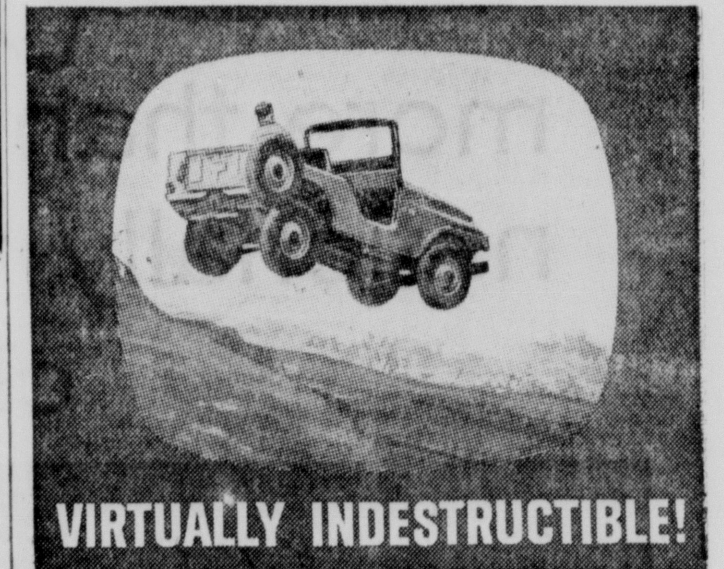

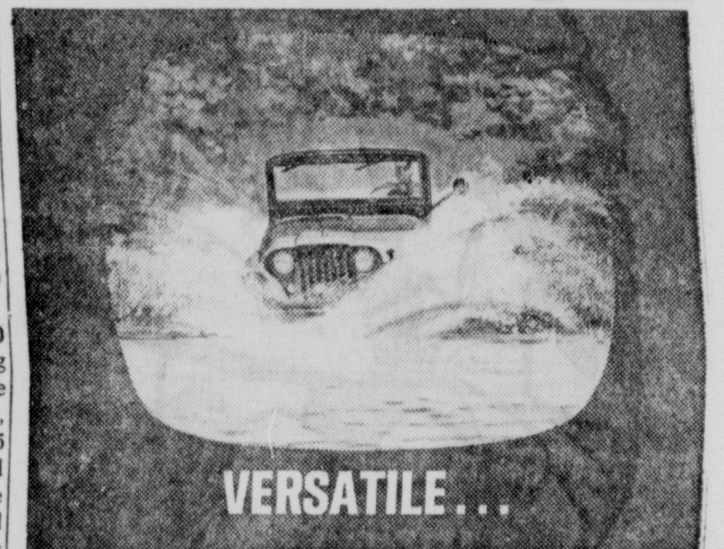

Three Ohioans, Jerry Lucas and John Havlicek of Ohio State and Paul Hogue of Cincinnati, were named to the 10-man All America squad. Purdue's Terry Dischinger and Bradley's Chet Walker were the other midwesterners who were All America choices of the basketball writers. Others were Len Chappell of Wake Forest, Art Heyman of Duke, Cotton Nash of Kentucky, Jack Foley of Holy Cross and Bill McGill of Utah.

Joe Bernard, a former Leetonia athlete who played varsity ball for the Bears during his high school days, was a special guest at the banquet. Both Gibson and Bernard took coaching assignments at East Liverpool High School after leaving Leetonia.

In his address, Coach Gibson reminisced over his earlier coaching days at Leetonia, touching on humorous incidents during this coaching span. He also, in a more-serious vein, spoke on attributes fundamental in great athletes.

Gibson related that he hoped players on his teams would always possess three distinct "bones"—the funny bone, to enjoy a good laugh, even at your own expense; the wish bone, to set ambitions and goals high; and the backbone, to give an athlete the get-up-and-go needed so very much.

Gibson concluded by telling his audience that he was proud to have been associated in coaching with this area of Ohio, since he considered the Tri-County League district one of the strongest-coached and aggressive sports areas in the state.

COACH IKE Farrah spoke briefly and introduced his 1961 track and football teams. The members of the track squad were:

Graduated seniors George Cole, Capt. Bob Gullett, John Prior, Howard Schnepf, Joe Sevenich and Jim Stelts.

Juniors John Altman, Mike Burgess, Dan Dattilio, Guy Falzetta, Joe Gallo, Ray Hall, George King, Russ Lehman, Jim Less, Eric Painter, Ed Rowedda, Rich Smith, Bob Snyder, Rich Troy and Dave Wilkinson.

Sophomores Ray Burkholder, Paul Conrad, Dan Ferry, Frank Guerrier, Allen Vignon and Steve Vrabie.

Managers Ron Hall and Art Matheny.

PLAYERS introduced from the 1961 football team were:

Seniors John Altman, Dan Dattilio, Guy Falzetta, Captain Joe Gallo, Captain George King, Jim Less, Karl Morris, Capt. Eric

Painter, Bob Snyder, Rich Troy and Dave Wilkinson.

Juniors Ray Burkholder, Paul Conrad, Dan Ferry, Frank Guerrier, Allen Vignon and Steve Vrabie.

Managers Ray Hall, Russ Lehman, Pat Morrissey and Phil Cosena.

COACH LEN Batcha introduced the members of his 1961-62 basketball squads. They were:

Seniors Joe Gallo, Fran Goerig, Jeff Hauer, Capt. Russ Lehman and Eric Painter.

Juniors Paul Conrad, Frank Guerrier, Jay Holloway, Jon Holloway and Henry Nemenz.

Managers Tom Troy, Pete Fraser and Robert Woodall.

MISS ANN Topie, girls physical education teacher and cheerleading coach, introduced last year's football queen, Lynda Carney, and the 1961-62 cheerleaders. The varsity cheerleaders are Miss Carney and Judy Snyder, seniors, and Nancy Troy, Susan Greenmayer and Linda Guido, juniors. The Reserve cheerleaders are freshmen Kathy Kleeber, Susan Woods and Vicki Snyder.

Guests introduced during the evening included Jack Mills, ex-Lisbon cage coach, several Tri-County League coaches and members of the Heidelberg College grid coaching staff.

Coaches Gibson and Bernard were presented gifts by members of their Leetonia teams in the early 1950's.

George P. Hanna, Leetonia High School principal, served as master of ceremonies, and Rev. William Woodall of the Presbyterian Church gave the invocation.

Lisbon Social

Mrs. Cecil McCowin, Mrs. Robert Hahn and Mrs. Everett Higgins won prizes at 500 when Mrs. John Holshue of N. Jefferson St. entertained the Cardettes at her home Friday night. Mrs. Hahn was a guest.

Mrs. Donald Elkins of Blacks Road will receive the club March 23.

The Pythian Sisters Lodge met Friday night in the Pythian Temple, with Mrs. Roy Patterson presiding in the absence of Mrs. Pearl Camp.

Following the ritualistic work, birthday anniversaries of members were observed. Mrs. C. E. Mitchell and her committee were the hostesses.

The next meeting will be March 23.

DESSERT BRIDGE WAS enjoyed by the Fortnightly Club Friday night when they were received in the home of Miss Josephine Bennett of N. Market St.

Mrs. A. G. Marshall, Mrs. Frank Henry and Miss DeErla Smith were guests.

Thursday, March 22, is the date of the next meeting, with the place to be announced.

Double-Four Club met Saturday night at the home of Mrs. A. E. Christopher of Vine St. Card games were played.

Miss Helene Prudner of W. Chestnut St. will entertain the club March 24.

SEVEN COUPLES OF the Mariners Group of Trinity United Presbyterian Church met Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Yarwood of Salem, former Lisbon residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Yarwood were in charge of the business and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Zapata led the devotions.

A program was presented by Miss Takayo Kinoshita, an exchange student who is making her home with Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Lehwald of Salem. She was introduced by Mrs. Lehwald.

Lunch was served by the hosts, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. John Reese, co-hosts.

The next meeting will be a work night at the church beginning at 6 p.m. with a coverdinner April 14.

Atty. and Mrs. Lynn Riddle of E. Lincoln Way returned home Saturday evening from Columbus where Mr. Riddle had been on business the past several days.

Charles Bonar of E. Chestnut St. spent the weekend with relatives in Mountsville, W. Va.

"The Risk of Being a Presbyterian" will be the topic for the first part of the message for the "Thursday at 7" service at Trinity United Presbyterian Church this week and will be followed by "The Risk of Having a Destiny".

DRIVE STARTS CLEVELAND (AP) — A drive was to start today to enlist the support of 275,000 greater Cleveland women in urging motorists to install seat belts in their cars.

SERVICES SET WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Services will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday for John P. Farah, 30, son of a former Warren rackets boss slain last June.

Farah died Friday in his home in Costa Mesa, Calif., two days after he celebrated his birthday. He was a salesman and left Warren two years ago because of ill health.

His father, Mike Farah, was shot to death while practicing chip shots in his yard with a golf club. The slaying is unsolved.

TO MEET MARCH 22 YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — The proposed lake-to-river canal will be the theme of the annual meeting of the Downtown Board of Trade March 22.

Main speaker will be Charles G. Nichols, department store executive and head of Interconnecting Waterway, Inc., newly-created group supporting the project.

QUESTION JUVENILES AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Police were questioning five juveniles they said admitted a series of burglaries and car thefts in Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia. Summit County sheriff's deputies quoted the boys as saying they stole such items as soft drinks, candy bars, cheap jewelry and watches along with at least five cars. Ranging in age from 14 to 17, two are from Akron and the others from Pennsylvania. Deputies took them into custody Sunday.

Construction is the largest U.S. industry, accounting for some 15 per cent of total employment.

They Walked With Christ

JOSEPH

"... the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost."

—Matthew 1:20

Little of Joseph's personal history is told in the New Testament. He is described as a "just man," who resided in Nazareth. He was of the house and the lineage of David.

We know him as a quiet man, who understood and believed the message of the angel who warned him of danger to the Infant Jesus, and kept him constantly alert to the snares woven in the minds of the Child's enemies.

He comes to us in the role of the protective father, the tireless watcher over his Charge, the careful provider of His early physical needs.

Scriptural history of Joseph ends with the account of the Holy Family's journey to Jerusalem for the Passover, when Jesus was 12 years of age.

But it is evident by implication that he died before the trial and crucifixion, since Jesus upon the Cross gave the care of His mother into the keeping of the beloved disciple.

There is an apocryphal story told of Joseph and his carpenter's shop, where he is said to have taught Jesus his trade.

He was showing the young Boy how to carve wood with the grain. Jesus watched closely and then duplicated the operation with understanding and skill.

"You can always know a wood by its grain," Joseph told Him. "And knowing the grain, you can mould it to the form you wish."

"It is like the nature of man. Know this, and you can anticipate his thoughts, and direct these as you wish, if you have a reason that is good."

Jesus understood this parable, the story goes. He told Joseph:

"I am aware of the Time ahead. And I will meet it."

Educational TV aids Ohio State professors

Another pressing problem of education is being met at Ohio State University. The problem: teaching larger classes. The solution: closed-circuit television, enabling over 15,000 students annually to view lectures and close-up demonstrations in modern TV classrooms. The TV "carrier" system, which Ohio Bell engineered and installed, uses some six miles of coaxial cable, providing for as many as 18 simultaneous broadcasts. This TV cable system is one of many services furnished by Ohio Bell to meet a wide range of communications needs.
